

NOOTROPIC HEALTH BENEFITS

Students often experience difficulties with concentration which impacts their academic performance. Moreover, memory loss or cognitive deficits can also occur as a result of old age, neurological disease or poor nutrition.

Food supplements can enhance concentration, memory and cognitive capacity. The benefit of taking a supplement to improve concentration, memory and cognitive capacity is that it is a quick and easy method.

Choline

Contributes to normal lipid metabolism.

Phosphatidyl Serine 20%

Essential components of cell membranes. P.S. is found in high concentrations in the brain.

The dose is exact and can deliver multiple beneficial components to the body at a time.

Vitamin B5

Pantothenic acid contributes to normal mental performance.